Student Learning Outcomes Assessment: This course uses a pre- and post-test to determine the extent of improvement that the students have gained during the semester. Pre-test and post-test grades will appear in My Grades on Blackboard but are not figured into your grade.

Classroom Policy: This class will be taught in an online format with course materials and support through Blackboard. I am available for office hours and face to face meetings on the Levelland campus, Reese campus and the Lubbock Center. Please email me to set up a time to meet.

It is your responsibility to adequately prepare for the class. Plan adequate time to watch the lectures and complete all coursework for the class. I know from experience that it is easy to fall behind in online classes and to get discouraged. Avoid that by scheduling time to work on online classes just as if you were meeting face to face. In short, don't procrastinate.

The lectures, quizzes, exams and movies for this class will all be available online, either through Blackboard or Swank Digital Campus. To be able to watch movies on Swank Digital Campus, you will need to create a free account. Go to the SPC Library website at <https://southplainscollege.libguides.com/catalog/videos>. Under the Swank Digital Campus heading, click the link. That will take you to the free streaming site we use at SPC. Click student, then Login at the top. Use your SPC email address to create your account.

Because the course is primarily delivered online, you will be required to spend time each and every week to successfully complete the course. The class will require the same amount of time to study and prepare as the face to face classes. There will be deadlines for access to quizzes and exams; please make note of the deadlines and complete your work on time. After the deadline has passed, the quizzes and exams will no longer be available. I will make announcements regarding when quizzes and exams will be available as well as the deadlines to complete them. Also, all quizzes and exams will have a time limit because I want to know what you know, not how quickly you can look up the answers.

Course Evaluation: Course evaluation for this class will be as follows:

Written Assignments: 1	200 points
Chapter Exams: 6 – 100 points each	600 points
Movie Quizzes: 6 – 50 points each	300 points
Discussion Participation:	150 points
Instructor Evaluation:	100 points

Grade Assignment:	90% and up	A
	80-89%	B
	70-79%	C
	60-69%	D
	59% and below	F

Attendance Policy: Since this class will be conducted primarily online, it will be the students' responsibility to adhere to class schedules and due dates and to check in to Blackboard for updates, announcements and assignments. I recommend you check the assignments and announcements at least twice per week. It is easy to neglect an online-based class, so make sure you keep up. If you get behind, I will email you to check your status.

Communication during this time is key. I will make class announcements and assignments on Blackboard. If you have any questions, please email me.

Students are expected to actively participate in online-based classes in order to be successful in a course. The student may be administratively withdrawn from the course when participation and performance suffer as defined in the course syllabus. If your participation and class performance result in your grade dropping below passing, it will be recommended that you drop the class. Such drops are not automatic; correspondence with the instructor regarding intentions and making up missed assignments will result in the student not being administratively dropped.

When an unavoidable reason for class absence arises, such as illness, an official trip authorized by the college or an official activity, the instructor may permit the student to make up work missed. It is the student's responsibility to complete work missed within a reasonable period of time as determined by the instructor. The instructor teaches multiple sections of this class. If you know you will miss a class for any reason, you may attend one of the other classes to avoid an absence and attain the information from that class. Contact the instructor for details.

Students who enroll in a course but have "Never Attended" by the official census date, as reported by the faculty member, will be administratively dropped by the Office of Admissions and Records. A student who does not meet the attendance requirements of a class as stated in the course syllabus and does not officially withdraw from that course by the official census date of the semester, may be administratively withdrawn from that course and receive a grade of "X" or "F" as determined by the instructor. Instructors are responsible for clearly stating their administrative drop policy in the course syllabus, and it is the student's responsibility to be aware of that policy.

It is the student's responsibility to verify administrative drops for excessive absences through MySPC using his or her student online account. If it is determined that a student is awarded financial aid for a class or classes in which the student never attended or participated, the financial aid award will be adjusted in accordance with the classes in which the student did attend/participate and the student will owe any balance resulting from the adjustment.

Plagiarism and Cheating: Students are expected to do their own work on all projects, quizzes, assignments, examinations, and papers. Failure to comply with this policy will result in an F for the assignment and can result in an F for the course if circumstances warrant.

Plagiarism violations include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Turning in a paper that has been purchased, borrowed, or downloaded from another student, an online term paper site, or a mail order term paper mill;
2. Cutting and pasting together information from books, articles, other papers, or online sites without providing proper documentation;
3. Using direct quotations (three or more words) from a source without showing them to be direct quotations and citing them; or
4. Missing in-text citations.

Cheating violations include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Obtaining an examination by stealing or collusion;
2. Discovering the content of an examination before it is given;
3. Using an unauthorized source of information (notes, textbook, text messaging, internet, apps) during an examination, quiz, or homework assignment;
4. Entering an office or building to obtain unfair advantage;
5. Taking an examination for another;
6. Altering grade records;
7. Copying another's work during an examination or on a homework assignment;
8. Rewriting another student's work in Peer Editing so that the writing is no longer the original student's;
9. Taking pictures of a test, test answers, or someone else's paper.

Neither instructor nor student should be subject to others' behavior that is rude, disruptive, intimidating, aggressive, or demeaning. Student conduct that disrupts the learning process or is deemed disrespectful or threatening shall not be tolerated and may lead to disciplinary action and/or removal from class.

SPC Bookstore Price Match Guarantee Policy: If you find a lower price on a textbook, the South Plains College bookstore will match that price. The difference will be given to the student on a bookstore gift certificate! The gift certificate can be spent on anything in the store.

If students have already purchased textbooks and then find a better price later, the South Plains College bookstore will price match through the first week of the semester. The student must have a copy of the receipt and the book has to be in stock at the competition at the time of the price match.

The South Plains College bookstore will happily price match BN.com & books on Amazon noted as ships from and sold by Amazon.com. Online marketplaces such as Other Sellers on Amazon, Amazon's Warehouse Deals, fulfilled by Amazon, BN.com Marketplace, and peer-to-peer pricing are not eligible. They will price match the exact textbook, in the same edition and format, including all accompanying materials, like workbooks and CDs.

A textbook is only eligible for price match if it is in stock on a competitor's website at time of the price match request. Additional membership discounts and offers cannot be applied to the student's refund.

Price matching is only available on in-store purchases. Digital books, access codes sold via publisher sites, rentals and special orders are not eligible. Only one price match per title per customer is allowed.

Note: The instructor reserves the right to modify the course syllabus and policies, as well as notify students of any changes, at any point during the semester.
